Thurſday, June 2. 1720.

Convention for the Evacuation of the Kingdom of Sardinia.

BY virtue of the Full Powers, which we the Generals commanding the Forces employed in the War in Sicily, as well by Sea as by Land, have received from our Sovereigns, for treating of a Suſpenſion of Arms, and of the Evacuation of the Kingdom of Sardinia, we have after ſeveral Conferences agreed on the following Articles.

I. The ſame Suſpenſion of Arms, which has been ſettled for the Kingdom of Sicily and the Mediterranean, ſhall ſubſiſt in all its Points for Sardinia.

II. The Spaniſh Troops ſhall evacuate the Kingdom of Sardinia, as ſoon as the German Troops or others which are appointed for taking Poſſeſſion of it ſhall arrive there. All the fortified Places ſhall be delivered up, with the Artillery, and Ammunition, found therein when the Spaniſh Troops became Maſters of them.

III. The ſick and wounded Men of the Spaniſh Troops ſhall remain in the ſame Hoſpitals where they are, with all the Phyſicians, Surgeons, and others employed in the Hoſpitals for their Cure and Attendance; and it ſhall be allowed to leave Officers there to take Care of them: The Director of the ſaid Hoſpitals ſhall be furniſhed with every thing neceſſary for ſubſiſting them, on his paying for the ſame; and as ſoon as any ſhall be ſo recovered as to be fit for marching, they ſhall be furniſhed with Carriages, and Barks with Paſſports for tranſporting them to Spain, at their own Expence; and thoſe of them who may have Arms, ſhall be allowed to take them with them.

IV. The Officers of the Intendance, Commiſſaries of War, Clerks of the Accomptant and of the Treaſurer, as well for Sea as for Land, ſhall remain in the Places of the ſaid Kingdom, as well for adjuſting the Accompts as for making the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for imbarking the Troops, till it be performed; and a Liſt ſhall be given of the Names of thoſe who are to ſtay.

V. The Civil Officers of Sardinia and others without Exception, the Officers of the Spaniſh Troops, and any others whatſoever employed in the Service with the ſaid Troops, ſhall be allowed to withdraw out of the ſaid Kingdom their Families, Effects, and Equipages, to tranſport them to Spain; the neceſſary Paſſports, Carriages, and Barks they ſhall demand, to be furniſhed to them at their own Coſt.

VI. All the Magazines of Warlike Stores and Proviſions, and of all things elſe of what kind ſoever, therein including the Barley and Straw belonging to the Spaniſh Troops in the Towns and other Parts, ſhall remain ſafe; and the ſaid Troops ſhall be allowed to ſhip them off, or to make Uſe of them as they ſhall think fit, and Commiſſaries ſhall be nominated to take Care thereof, by placing a Guard of German Troops or others, who ſhall take into their Poſſeſſion the ſaid Magazines for their Security.

VII. The Evacuation of Algeri and of Caſtel-Aragoneſe ſhall be performed at the Time agreed, provided the neceſſary Imbarkations be ready at Algeri for receiving the Troops, and that they have on board Proviſions ſufficient for 40 Days. The Garriſon of Caſtel-Aragoneſe ſhall be imbarked in the like Manner; nor ſhall thoſe two Garriſons be obliged to march by Land to Cagliari to imbark there: And that of Cagliari ſhall imbark at Cagliari; the Cavalry at either of thoſe Places as the Captain-General who commands in that Kingdom ſhall agree, together with all the Artillery, Magazines, Ammunition, and Proviſions, which may be found in the ſaid Places belonging to the Spaniſh Troops; and thoſe Places ſhall be delivered up to the German Troops, or others who in their Name ſhall take Poſſeſſion of them without meddling with the Fortifications, the ſame Day the Spaniſh Troops ſhall imbark to paſs into Spain.

VIII. All the Spaniſh Troops, Infantry, Cavalry, and Dragoons, ſhall be tranſported to Spain, with their Arms, Colours, Standards, Horſes, Cloaths, and Baggage, in all Safety, and without any Obſtruction, to be landed on the Coaſt of Catalonia or Valencia, as well by the Imbarkations with which they may be immediately furniſhed, as by thoſe which may come from Spain, or by others belonging to other Powers; which Tranſportation ſhall be by the ſhorteſt Paſſage.

IX. All the Marine and Land Forces in the Condition they now are in the Kingdom of Sardinia, under the Generals, Officers, and other Perſons, who may be employed in the Service of the Spaniſh Forces, ſhall be permitted to imbark to paſs over to Spain; and thoſe Natives of the Country of Sardinia, who would likewiſe paſs over to Spain, ſhall be allowed to do it without any Hindrance.

X. All the Shipping and Imbarkations neceſſary for tranſporting the Spaniſh Troops, Infantry, Cavalry, and Dragoons, with the Artillery, Ammunition, and Equipages, ſhall be furniſhed; but it is underſtood that this ſhall be at the Expence of the Spaniards, and ſome of His Britannick Majeſty's Men of War ſhall be allowed to convoy them in all Safety to Spain.

XI. The Imbarkation of the Troops ſhall be at the forementioned Places, and at the Time agreed; the Tranſports ſhall be ready to receive them, with 40 Days Proviſions, as well for the Men as for the Horſes, to be reckoned by the ordinary Ration; nor ſhall a greater Number of Men be obliged to imbark on the Tranſports, than they can hold according to the ordinary Rules; to the End the Men may be at their Eaſe in the hot Seaſon which is coming on.

XII. It ſhall be allowed to ſhip off and tranſport to Spain with all Security, all the Artillery and Mortars, as well Braſs as Iron, which are in the Places of the Kingdom of Sardinia, and were brought from Spain or other Parts ſince the Spaniſh Troops came there; leaving in the Places of the ſaid Kingdom the Artillery found there and yet remaining; and all the Ammunition found therein when the Spaniſh Troops took Poſſeſſion, and yet remaining, ſhall bona fide be given up, it being allowed that all the Ammunition brought from Spain or elſewhere may be imbarked.

XIII. All the Ships, Gallies, and other Imbarkations belonging to Spain, or to its Subjects, which ſhall be found in the ſaid Kingdom, ſhall be ſuffered to paſs freely to Spain, with their Guns, Crews, and all the Effects they may have on board. It ſhall likewiſe be allowed to imbark all the Artillery, Arms, Anchors, Cordage, Sails, and other Effects whatever belonging to the Spaniſh Gallies or other Veſſels which have been diſarmed, or have been wrecked, that ſhall be found in the Places which the Spaniſh Troops do now poſſeſs.

XIV. The Commiſſaries who ſhall be appointed, ſhall be permitted to ſtay in the ſaid Kingdom, there to ſell the Effects which ſhall remain in the Magazines or elſewhere; as alſo to take Care of the Sick who ſhall not be in a Condition to imbark with the reſt of the Troops, and who when they ſhall be in a Condition to imbark, ſhall be furniſhed with Veſſels for carrying them to Spain, at the Charge of the ſaid Commiſſaries.

XV. Neither at the Time of the Imbarkation, nor before, nor after, ſhall any Deſerter be ſtopt or reclamed by either Party, nor ſhall any Soldier be detained on account of his Nation.

XVI. All the Officers and Soldiers of the Forces either in Sea or Land Service, who are in Sardinia, and have been made Priſoners during the War of Sicily and Sardinia, ſhall be reſtored to the Corps to which they belonged.

XVII. Paſſes ſhall be given to all the Ships, Gallies, Feluccaes and other Imbarkations, which are in Sardinia, to go to Spain or to Italy for the Service of the Spaniſh Army.

XVIII. As for the Victuals of the Ships and other Veſſels which are to ſerve for the Tranſporting the Spaniſh Troops, they ſhall be paid for at the common Prices, either in ready Money or in Bills of Exchange.

XIX. Six Months Time ſhall be granted to the Spaniſh Officers, or Natives of the Country, or others who have Eſtates or Effects in the ſaid Kingdom, to ſell, or alienate them; after which, Paſſes ſhall be given them for their going ſafe to Spain.

XX. Commiſſaries of War ſhall be appointed to examine the Debts, and to adjuſt and certify thoſe which may have been contracted by the Officers of the Spaniſh Troops, as alſo thoſe which may have been contracted there for the Accompt of their Sovereign, which being found juſt and certified as ſuch ſhall be paid, and till Payment one Commiſſary of War ſhall be left as an Hoſtage.

XXI. It ſhall be allowed, and Paſſports ſhall be given for ſending for by Sea or Land, and taking from any Part of the Kingdom whatſoever, all ſuch Proviſions of what Quality ſoever, and other things, which ſhall be wanted for the Subſiſtance and Imbarkation of the Spaniſh Troops, on paying for the ſame.

XXII. The General Officers and others who are Hoſtages on both Sides for the Security of the Treaty of Suſpenſion of Arms and Evacuation of the Kingdom of Sicily, ſhall likewiſe be Hoſtages for the Evacuation of that of Sardinia.

XXIII. If the Tranſports which are to carry the Troops deſigned to take Poſſeſſion of Sardinia, ſhall not be ſufficient for tranſporting all the Spaniſh Troops at once, thoſe Troops ſhall be imbarked as the others arrive.

XXIV. When Poſſeſſion is taken of Cagliari, the Spaniſh Troops which ſhall remain till another Imbarkation, ſhall be drawn together in the Villages about Cagliari, as ſhall be agreed by the Captain-General with the Perſon who ſhall be authorized to take Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Kingdom; and they ſhall maintain themſelves there at their own Expence, except for Straw, Wood, and green Forage, with which they ſhall be furniſhed from the neareſt Places; places: And when Poſſeſſion is taken of Cagliari, the Spaniards ſhall no longer meddle with the civil Government of Sardinia.

We the underwritten Generals employed by Sea and Land in the War of Sicily, do by Virtue of the full Powers which we have from our Sovereigns, promiſe on both Sides to cauſe the foregoing Articles to be performed bona fide. Done at the Camps near Palermo the 8th of May, 1719.
